audio NFT sextape

for Ryder Ripps, whom I cannot explain succinctly not words i had on my 2021 bingo card, but here comes Ryder and his three-week fling with Azealia Banks, complete with engagement ring and yes, audio NFT sextape. and yes, that Ryder Ripps, of Art Whore fame—you may remember him as the cishet white guy who hired two sensual masseuses to be the warm bodies in his performance piece a few years back, graciously speaking on their behalf to maintain the high art charade. good job, Ryder, you made a point to all the other cishet white men who use their power to co-opt the labor of others to make their silly little points. and good, cause they're the only ones who found that even remotely groundbreaking.
